

“Do the right thing, even when no one is watching”

For ourselves: Strive for professional excellence through experience, training and education. Take pride and responsibility in our work. Work with integrity and commitment.

For our co-workers: Show respect for the diversity among us. Uphold the values of teamwork, camaraderie, honesty and trust. Strive for health, wellness and safety in the workplace.

For the communities we serve: Protect life and property with professionalism, compassion, concern, and caring. Provide quality-oriented service. Show respect for our diverse and ever-changing community
